Two Mysterious Pistol Shots. About one o'clock this morning two pistol shots in rapid succession alarmed persons living to the vicinity of the Franklin Engine-House, on D street, near Twelfth nonthwest, and a crowd quickly gathered. Sergeant Gay and Officers Anidridge and Hobbs investigated the matter, but were unable to discover the shooter. The surmise was that some one liv-ing in the alloy back of the engine-house had merely fired off a pistol for fun, as no one ould be found who was injured and no outery was made. The Best Assoriment of Indies', misses', and childrens' shoes can be found at Park Shoe Store, 832 Seventh street, near K. BASE-BALL.

The Nationals' First Defeat-The Game with the Capital City Nine.

The largest gathering of the season was that ssembled yesterday afternoon on the National grounds to witness the base-ball match be-tween that club and the Capital Citys, of Albany, N. Y. It had been previously predicted that the contest would prove a close and exciting one, and the prophecy was fulfilled. The Nationals, by their recent successes, have gained a strong hold with the patrons Recommended by physicians gen- of the sport, and began to be looked nine and one difficult to defeat. It was selected with care, and in composition embraces some of the best men in the profession.

Knowing these facts the Nationals went into the game confident of success, but neither at the bat nor in the field did they deport themselves as at previous matches. Only eight base bits were nade acquisit twenty six base hits were made, against twenty-six in the previous game, which is sufficient to show the sudden falling off in that respect. Another the sudden falling off in that respect. Another strange circumstance is the fact that the best and most reliable batters virtually fide nothing. Eight errors were chargeable to their account, and they proved costly luxures. One by Trott and another by Elick gave their adversaries two runs. With the exceptions noted these men and the remaining infieldurs performed good service. Holly captured a long fly in good style, and deserved the hearty appliance returned him as a compliment.

On the side of the Capital City Higham and Manning excelled at the bat, and secured within one of half the base hits that the visitors made. The errors counted up to six and bepimself in such language as to bring down con-lemnation upon Mr. Higham and to prejudice, the reputation of his club. His efforts at browbeating and threatening were both noticed and remarked upon yesterday, and be made the effort to dictate to the Nationals with the same assurance as he commands his own nine. Ap-

COLORED MIGRATION.

A Public Meeting to be Held Next Monday Night.

Action of the District Society Last Night-Emigration from the District Proposed-Invitation from Washington Territory-The Pilgrims on the Banks of the Misalsalppi, &c., &c., &c.

Action of the District Association A meeting of the Emigrant Aid Society of the District of Columbia was held last evening, Mr. O. S. B. Wall in the chair. After some preliminary business it was decided that the next effort of the local organization at Washington should be to inaugurate in this comworthy solicitors, whose name will be an-nounced at the next meeting. A committee was also appointed to select speakers for that occasion and to make proper announcement of the public meeting through the press and otherwise.

Rev. William J. Simmons suggested that the local scalety might, with propriety, put forth an effort to organize a colony or company of an enort to organize a colony or company of respectable people who may desire to emigrate to the West from the District of Columbia. He based his suggestion upon the fact that but few localities in the United States are more overcrowded than this, and that few localities afford at present less opportunity for substantial pecuniary advancement. He stated that he knew of a number of rather well-to-de colored families who would shall adopt the ored families who would gladly adopt the far West as their future home if afforded an opportunity to go and locate as a community of friends and relatives.

After some discussion it was agreed that those in this community who are interested in this proposition should be requested to ad-dress Mr. Simmons, at No. 2011 Ninth street, and that further action upon the subject should be taken at some future meeting.

Mr. Stephen Johnson, of Nebraska, deprecated the disposition of colored people to overstock the labor markets of particular communities, and expressed the belief that the advantages held forth to immigrants in his State were quite as favorable as those to be found in Karsa.

Mr. Adams stated that he was in receipt of numerous letters in regard to the subject of colored emigration, and proceeded to read one received yesterday from the wife of a promi-nent citizen of Washington Territory. The nent citizen of Washington Territory. The following is an extract therefrom:

In looking over The National Republican of March 29 I see that you are interested in the subject of colored migration. I cannot resist the inpulse of begring you to use your infinence in sending at least 100 girls and women to this place. I feel sure that that number could have places engaged for them before they reach here. The great trial to housekeepers in this Territory is the difficulty in getting help of any kind. They are mainly dependent upon Chinese, who are far inferior to colored servants, and even medium cooks who are not willing to do the westling of a family are getting from 36 to 88 per week. I am well acquainted with the wants of the colored people, as I lived in Maryland and Vignina both before and after the war. The climate is very mild here, and very nearly resembles that of the above maned States. It is one in which they would thrive. If families wish to come, there is plenty of land for them to homestead or pre-engl, and plenty of work for them to do until they can rules the means to go and take up this land. I simply write this letter to let you see how much we need them, and how it will improve our condition as much as it will theirs. We will be glad to see them coming, and will give them fair wages. following is an extract therefrom :

An Important Message from Russia. A few days ago a letter covered with Russian stamps and postmarks arrived at the city post office. As no one was able to make out for whom it was intended, it was sent to the Russian Minister, who, it was believed, could solve the mystery. It was returned by the Russian Minister with the information that it was intended for the Health Officer. The letter was duly forwarded to Health Officer Townshend, duly forwarded to Health Officer Townshend, and another difficulty presented itself. No one could read it. It had the appearance of being a very important communication, covering four pages of paper, and steps were immediately taken to learn its contents. Several linguists were consulted, but none succeeded in the translation until one familiar with the Russian dialect was found. Then the Health Department was informed that a Russian gentleman named Hennepin had an unfailing remedy for rheumatism which he desired to sell to the United States Government. sell to the United States Government.

Yesterday morning, about 7:30 o'clock, while William Clarke, employed on the new Bureau of Printing and Engraving, was at work on the top of the building the crow-foot gave way, and he was precipitated to the ground, a distance of fifty feet, and fatally injured. His back was broken, and he also suffered a long cut in the back of his head, a lacerated wound on the hip, and a fracture of three ribs. Mr. Clarke was carried to the house of Lis friend, Mr. Jahn Clarke, corner of Seventh and Lestreets southwest, where he was attended by Dr. H. E. Leach. The injured man was for twelve or

At eight o'clock last evening the tremendous tretch of canvas belonging to Cooper & Bailey's Circus was packed with 7,500 delighted and enthusiastic men, women, and children. The order was issued to stop selling tickets at that hour, and it was estimated that at least 2,000 people were turned away. Inside the tent the sight was one long to be remembered. A vast sea of faces gladdened the hearts of the managers and cheered the performers to extra exertious. Congress, the army, diplomatic corps, and strangers from all parts of the country helped make up the crowd. As the various acts were given in the arena it was hard to acts were given in the arena it was hard to control the multitude; but by constant efforts on the part of the ushers every one was allowed to see what was transpiring. The riding was unquestionably of the first order, the gymnastic partion of the entertainment very successful, and the juggling unique.

ington should be to inaugurate in this community some movement for raising funds and collecting clothing for the immediate relief of suffering emigrants in the West. It was accordingly agreed that the next meeting of the society should be held on next Monday evening, at Lincoln Hall, and that the public should be invited to be present. Mr. W. G. Fearing suggested that in order to be fully successful in the matter of raising funds the receiver thereof should be well and favorably known in the community. He therefore withdrew from the collect of treasurer of the seelety in favor of thou. A. M. Clapp, who was quantimously cleeted as his successor. In furtherance of this same object a committee of three was appainted to select a suitable number of trustworthy solicitors, whose mame will be announced at the next meeting.
